From Destination to Training Ground -

Rediscovering Your Congregation's Vocation

We invite you to join us for our webinar "From Destination to Training Ground - Rediscovering Your Congregation's Vocation" led by Rev. Dr. David Lose. David is currently serving as the President of Lutheran Theological Seminary of Philadelphia. Prior to that he was the Professor of Biblical Preaching at Luther Seminary.

Here is a brief description from Dr. Lose on the focus of this webinar.

"For the better part of three centuries, churches in North America enjoyed the tacit support of the larger culture. In this sense, they functioned well as spiritual destinations for those prepared by the culture to seek them out. Given how much that cultural support has withered, it's increasingly difficult for congregations to thrive as destinations that fewer and fewer people are seeking. At the same time, there are so many other options for spiritual fulfillment and manifold demands on our time, which means that our people want and need to understand how their faith helps them make sense of their daily lives. For this reason, congregations need to offer their people a place to learn and practice their faith. Join us as we discuss some of the primary challenges and opportunities of vibrant ministry in this cultural moment."

Please plan to join us on Wednesday, November 30th. The webinar will be held twice on that day, one at 10:30AM, or later that same day at 7pm CST. To sign up for the webinar, please click on the links below. Please feel free to invite anyone from your congregation to attend by forwarding this invitation to them.
