

A Radio Program Series: “Martin Luther’s Musical Legacy”

In September, October and November, 2017, Sacred Concert will present a 7-part series of 3-hour programs celebrating the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation.

Martin Luther, an accomplished musician as well as a theologian, was extremely influential in shaping the course of church music for the next 500 years.

“Sacred Concert” can be heard Sunday mornings from 6 to 9 on KLEF-FM 98.1 or klef98.com. Here are the dates and program subjects:

Part 1	Sep. 10	Pre-Reformation Sacred Music: Luther’s formative experiences.
Part 2	Sep. 24	Luther’s Own Hymns and Musical Gatherings in His Home.
Part 3	Oct. 8	Sacred Music from Luther’s Contemporaries.
Part 4	Oct. 22	Musical Development in the first 300 years of the Lutheran Church.
Part 5	Oct. 29	A Musical Celebration for Reformation Day.
Part 6	Nov. 5	The Music from other Reform Movements.
Part 7	Nov. 12	The Roman Catholic Response: Counter Reformation Music.

Sponsorships for these programs are available for $60 per program. There are 5 promotional spots Wednesday through Saturday, and 3 within each program.
