

StewardCast!

An ELCA churchwide online stewardship workshop, February 27, 2016

As a Ventures Steward Leader, you are aware of the challenges we face with current culture and world issues while striving for a deeper understanding of what the resurrection of Jesus Christ means today. Addressing these circumstances is not a financial issue, but a spiritual one. This event invites and encourages us to engage and critique culture in our role as stewards. The purpose is to thank, inform, teach, inspire and connect with current and new steward leaders. With fresh perspectives, practices and skills we strive together to address the challenges and issues faced in stewarding congregational and community contexts. The audiences for this event include congregational stewardship committees/teams and individual rostered or lay leaders. Please invite your Ventures clusters to participate.

The format is a combination of presentations and informal discussions led by keynoters. There will be a live audience and an opportunity for online participation. The event is 7:30 AM-9:00 Alaska Time, Saturday, Feb. 27, 2016. The agenda includes:

Introduction	Keith Mundy
Why Strengthen Mission & Giving	Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton
Learnings from ELCA Macedonia Project	Rev. Bob Davis
Learnings from the Online Giving Project	Steve Oelschlager
Introduction to Embracing Stewardship	Rev. Charles Lane, Grace Duddy Pomroy
When Faith and Finances Collide	Rev. Dr. Stephen Bouman
Closing Reflections	Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton

Participation in this event requires online registration. You can join as an individual or a congregation group. Register at:

<https://community.elca.org/ELCAStewardCastFeb2016>

until Friday, February 12. There are several registration options including the purchase of a new book entitled Embracing Stewardship by Rev. Charles Lane and Ms. Grace Duddy Pomroy at a reduced price. Those registered will receive the online address to participate at least 24 hours prior to the start of the event. Participants will also be eligible for additional promotions. If you have any questions, please contact Rev. Lisa Smith Fiegel, alaskadem@gmail.com or call 907-272-8899.