

What has been happening in your church lately? Have you noticed new faces or missing familiar ones? Where do you put your energy? Is your church serving the community the same as the people who walk through the door on Sunday morning? Where do you sense God's presence when you gather as the body of Christ? What is missing? What do you hope for your church?

These are not easy questions, since many are happy to move along in life simply reacting to what goes on around us. But God calls us into abundant life, aware life, hopeful, imaginative, and full life. It means we are invited to dream and create a future with God. At Synod Assembly this April 27-29, we will continue to dream and create the picture of God's church in the Alaska Synod of the ELCA.

By now, your voting members from your church should be registered for the Assembly. If you don't know who they are, ask your pastor! At the beginning of April, plan some time to answer the above questions as a church. Then, look at the following pages taken from the Alaska Synod Constitution about the work of a bishop. (The full Synod Constitution can be found at elcaalaska.net under the "leadership" tab.)

In your experience, who are the pastors you know that could lead this synod in these ways? Who do you admire for their voice, their faith, their leadership? In what ways will they dream and create a future for God's church in Alaska? How will you and your church support this shared work in the Gospel?

Selecting a bishop requires this kind of reflection and conversation – whether it is a new person, or a second term for our current bishop. Please take time as a whole people of God for this kind of awareness, for prayer, and for discerning God's will for this chapter in our Synod.

God Almighty, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Grant us, we pray, to be grounded and settled in your truth by the coming of the Holy Spirit into our hearts. That which we know not, reveal; that which is wanting in us, fill up; that which we know, confirm; and keep us blameless in your service; through Jesus Christ our Lord, amen.

Christ's Peace to your spirit,
